Private Tip That Davidson Will Give Him

NOTHING DEFINITE FROM MADISON

Many Leading Democrats Are Very Anxious To See Aylward Appointed To Fill The Vacancy.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 2, 2:30 p. m.
John H. Roemer will be named the railway commissioner this afternoon,
says a private but reliable tip.
Madison, Wis., Aug. 2.—Wanted—A good lawyer, preferably a democrat
of repute, who is free from corporation influence, to accept an appointment as member of the Wisconsin
railroad rate commission at a salary of $5,000 a year. Apply at once to Governor James O. Davidson.
This form of inquiry represents the situation of Governor Davidson with respect to the filling of the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Barnes of Rhineland. Governor Davidson surprised the politicians by appointing Bernard H. Goggins of Grand Rapids, but Mr. Goggins had not been consulted in advance and his family interposed such objections to the proposal to leave their home and remove to the Capital city that the appointment was declined. Mr.
Goggins yesterday called on the governor's office and notified Private Secretary Munson of his decision, explaining his reasons as being the objections of his family and the sacrifice which desertion of his business and law practice for a salary of $5,000
a year would be, and immediately
Colonel Munson called up the gover-

TODAY IS CHINESE EMPEROR'S BIRTHDAY

Anniversary of Great Ruler Who Is Heard Little of in World's Affairs.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—The dragon flag of the Celestial Empire
was displayed over the Chinese legation today in token of the fact that this was the birthday of the emperor, Kuang Hsun, born August 2, 1872.
The present Emperor of China, at thirty-five years of age, is probably the least known of the great rulers of the world, and this despite the fact that his dominion in extent and population has few equals and his country is a center of great attraction
and interest for the rest of the world.
Kuang Hsun is said to be popular with the intelligent element among his subjects, and it is believed that were he able to shake off the domination of the Dowager Empress he would aid in bringing about liberal reforms in China. Foreign diplomats who have resided at Peking speak well of the young Emperor. But so long as the old Dowager retains her power there is little hope of bringing about better conditions in the Flowery Kingdom.

OHIO SOLONS HOLD ANNUAL GATHERING

Pleasure Reunion—Will Incidentally Talk Politics.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Cedar Point, O., Aug. 2.—The members of the Ohio General Assembly, together with many politicians from over the state, gathered here today for their annual reunion. While pleasure and entertainment are supposed to occupy the legislature and other visitors during the two days of the reunion it is expected that they will find time for considerable discussion
of political affairs and it is possible that development of no little importance may result from the gathering.
Much interest centers in the reunion banquet to be held tonight at which the scheduled speakers include Governor Andrew L. Brierly, Senator Edward A. Hafner of Cincinnati, D. J.
O'Donoghue of Toledo, and Freeman T.
Engelsson, of Cambridge, speaker of the house.

ZOOLOGISTS GATHER FROM ALL COUNTRIES

Distinguished Scientists Will Hold Their First Convention
in Boston.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Boston, Mass., Aug. 2.—Distinguished zoologists from all parts of the world are to assemble in Boston this latter part of this month to take part in the Seventh International Zoological Congress. It will be the first session of the congress ever held in the United States and as a consequence
it has aroused considerable interest.
The association exists for purely scientific purposes. The coming meeting will be carried on in three general sessions, which will be devoted to addressing and discussions on scientific subjects, and in a large number of section meetings for the discussion of various branches of zoology.
The convention promises to be of the utmost interest to the scientific men of America as well as to the large number of foreigners who will be in attendance. Every possible attention will be paid by the American committee in charge of the entertainment of the delegates while in this country.
After the sessions of the congress
are concluded in Boston the foreign delegates will visit a number of other cities to inspect educational and scientific institutions. In New York
the visiting scientists will inspect Columbia University, the American Museum of Natural History and the Marine Laboratory of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences. Two days will be spent in Philadelphia in the inspection of the zoological gardens, the Academy of Natural Sciences and the institutions connected with the University of Pennsylvania.
A stay of several days in Washington will be followed by an excursion to Niagara Falls, Toronto and the University of Toronto. Returning to New York about the middle of September
the scientists will sail on a week's trip to Bermuda before departing.

SNAKES AGAIN PLAY HAVOC NEAR OCONTO

Reptiles of Pine Species May Under-

A Year Ago Last Fall.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Oconto, Wis., Aug. 2.—Thousands of snakes of the pine species, measuring from six to seven feet long, are again creating havoc at the Fern dam, near Mountain. The reptiles undermined the dam in the spring of 1906, and it had to be rebuilt. During the work of reconstruction, the snakes greatly retarded the workmen, becoming so bold as to crawl on tables while the men were at mess.
Guards have been placed at the dam,
and one, Hugh Herald, killed forty-five in one day, none less than seven feet long. Great destruction will result should the dam go out again.

GREEK PEONAGE IN CHICAGO IS CHARGED

Many Indictments May Be Issued Against Alleged Offenders for Alluring Boys to America.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 2.—The federal grand jury which reconvened today is expected to probe deep into the system of Greek peonage which is said to flourish in Chicago. Evidence has been collected, it is said, involving a number of leaders of the local Greek colony, and wholesale indictments against offenders are prepared by federal officials. The system is said to be elaborate and extensive in its ramifications, with the result that thousands of boys are held in virtual slavery. The boys are lured to America by promises of good employment and after their arrival here
are taken in charge by proprietors
of Greek shoe-shining parlors, ice cream parlors and restaurants, who keep the boys at work at nominal wages.

WILL LANDIS FINE OIL TRUST THIRTY MILLIONS?

Only Reason For Not So Doing Is Clemency-- Decision Will Be Appealed And Probably Not Settled For Years.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 2.—Before another day perhaps the largest fine recorded in judicial history may be assessed by Federal Judge K. M. Landis against the Standard Oil Company,
in the case in which the company
was recently convicted of using illegal railroad rates. Judge Landis has fixed upon tomorrow as the day upon which he will pass sentence on the company.
When, under the indictment, assured a year ago, the Standard Oil Company of Indiana was found guilty of violating the anti-trust law, the fixing of the fine for that offense devolved on Judge Landis, and as he had a free hand in assessing any fine between $1000 and $20,000 on each of the 1402 counts in the indictment, he was confronted with a rather difficult proposition. He did not know how much punishment the company could stand, and this is the reason why he summoned John D. Rockefeller and others prominently connected with Standard Oil affairs, so as to learn some of the financial secrets of the company which its counsel were either unable or unwilling to tell. The judge found that Mr. Rockefeller knew very little about the affairs of the company of which he is president,
and that little he was not sure of.
He divulged, however, that the capital of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is "about $100,000,000,"
and that its annual dividends now are "about 40 per cent."
No hint was leaked out as to the possible extent of the fine to be imposed tomorrow. The maximum fine for the number of counts in the indictment is something over $29,000,
and there are today predictions
from persons connected with the prosecution that this maximum fine will be assessed. The only excuse which a judge may feel called on to offer in imposing less than the maximum in criminal cases such as this is a bona fide reason for clemency. On the other hand, such a huge fine as $29, 000,000, if imposed on a company with a capital of only $100,000,000, would look disproportionate, and would give the company ground on which to make an appeal.
That in any event there will be an appeal from the fine assessed by Judge Landis is certain, and a final decision may be delayed for several years. In the meantime many other indictments against the company for violations of the Elkins law will be pushed to trial. Some of these, in the Northern District of Illinois, are almost as voluminous as the one on which the recent trial was based.
Practically the same kind of evidence figures in all the cases.

John Henry on the Benzine Buggy

By HUGH McHUGH

(George V. Hebert)

A cross-country dub named Montrose has been doing the show specialty around Clara Jane lately.

He began to call evenhills and bring a bunch of ready-grown flowers with him as big as a hay stack. Then he'd spread around the parlor and tell her how he won the long-distance running jump in the '01 Yale class.

As you approached him from the front the first name you saw was Clarence—Clarence Edgerton Montrose.

Wouldn't that slap you? I don't think Clara Jane considered him the real kiteman, but he could talk fast and use long words and she found him pleasant company.

She said she loved to sit and shade her eyes with the eight-dollar fan I gave her and listen to Clarence Edgerton Montrose while he discoursed about Palestine and the Holy Land.

If he was ever there he went in a hack. That's the trouble with some of those college come-outs! The professors beat them over the head with a geography and then as soon as they got a crowd around they begin to go to the places that struck them hardest.

He'd Spread Around the Parlor and Tell How He Won the Long Distance Jump in the '01 Yale Class.

As an honest, hard-working man it was my duty to put the boots to Edgerton and run him down the lane as far as the eye could see.

So I framed up Clarence's flash with much attention to detail.

I looked over Clara Jane's dates ahead and found that Clarence had rented the house for a Wednesday matinee, so I hired one of those horseless carriage things and pulled up in front of the windows just about the time I thought his feathers would be playing the overture.

I knew that Clara Jane would cancel the contract with the mutt that mixed in just as soon as she saw the automobile snap.

I figured that the picture entitled "The True Lover's Departure in the Dream Wagon" would put a crimp in Clarence about the size of a barn door.

It was my third or fourth time behind the lever of the busy bronche, but I was wise that you pulled the plug this way when you wanted it to go ahead, and you shoved it back when you wanted it to stop.

When it came to benzine buggies I felt that my education was complete. I was George Gazazza, the real Ro-lando, when I pulled up in front of my lady friend's front gate.

My market price was $18,000 a square inch.

In six minutes by the watch Clara

For a Chaser She Wore One of Those Featherboas.

Jane was down and in the keroseene caravan.

Clarence hadn't arrived. Somebody must have put him next, but I knew where he lived and I figured it out that after we came back from Lonely Lane I'd send the landau around and around the block he camped in till I made him dizzy.

Clara Jane was the feature of the game.

She was the limit in ladies' dress goods.

For a chaser she wore one of those feather boas that feel cool because they look so warm.

Well, I turned the horseless gas into the shell road and cut loose.

We were doing about 33 miles an hour and the bidliss wore slinging on the way.

Clarence Edgerton Montrose was working in shaft No. 3, back in the mines—my lady friend told me so. She was having the time of her life.

Sure Sign of Wisdom.

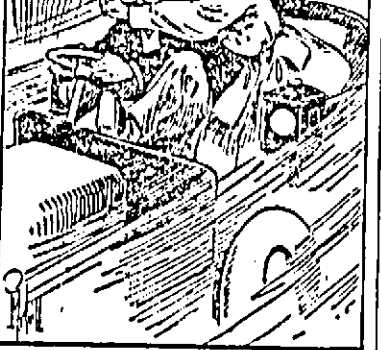

The most manifest sign of wisdom is continued coquettishness.—Montezuma.

I was her candy boy for sure. Just then something snapped and the machine started for Portland, Maine, on the basis of a mile in eight seconds.

Clara Jane grabbed me around the neck and I grabbed the lever.

"The eccentric has buckled the thingamajig!" I yelled, pushing the lever over to stop the carryall.

The thing gave me the horse laugh, jumped over a telegraph pole, bit its way through a barbed-wire fence and

"The Eccentric Has Buckled the Thingamajig!" I Yelled.

then started down the road at the rate of 2,000,000 miles a minute.

"Why don't you stop it!" screamed my lady friend.

"I'll be the goat; what's the answer?" I said, claving the lever and ducking the low bridges.

We met a man on a bicycle and the last I saw of him as we whizzed by he had found a soft spot in a field about four blocks away and he was going into it head first.

We kept his bicycle and carried it along on our smoke stack.

I couldn't stop the thing to save my life.

Every time I yanked the lever the snap would let a chortle out of his puzzle department and fly 400 feet straight through the air.

We were headed for an old ash heap, and my market price had gone down to three cents a ton.

"Don't jump!" I yelled to my lady friend, but the wind whizzed the first half of my sentence away.

Clara Jane gathered her skirts in a bunch and did a flying leap out of the crazy cab.

She landed right in the middle of that heap of fresh ashes—and she made good.

All I could see was a great, gray cloud as I pushed on to the next stand.

About half a mile further down the road the machine concluded to turn into a farm yard and give the home folks a treat.

It went through a window in the barn, out through a skylight, did the hula dance over the lawn, and then fell in the well and stayed there, panting as though its little gas-engine heart would break.

When I limped back to Clara Jane the storm signals were flying.

She was away out on the ice.

The feather boa looked like the hawser on a canal boat, and the ashes had changed the pattern of her dress goods.

We were stinky talkers on the road home.

It will take me two years to square myself.

Hereafter, me to the trolley! No to the saucy stage coach when I'm due to gallop away and away!

No more benzine buggies for yours sincerely!

Never again for the bughouse barouche! Not me.

I have only one consolation: The clasp we piled off the bicycle was Clarence Edgerton Montrose.

It will take him about three years and two months to find all the spots that foolish wagon knocked off him.

Meantime, I hope to be Clara Jane's sugar buyer again.

Mother Not to Be Trusted.

John Alexander Dowle had a grand knack of putting things quaintly and forcibly. At one of his last meetings he attacked the modern mother of society, the mother who neglects her children.

"Why," he said, "I overheard the most remarkable conversation between two nursemaids on a car yesterday.

"Are you going to the picnic?" said the first nursemaid.

"No," said the second, "I'm afraid I shan't be there."

"Why not?" cried the first. "And you so fond, too, of picnics and dancing and young men and all that there!"

"Oh," said the other nursemaid, "I'd dearly love to go; dearly. But, to tell you the truth, I'm afraid to leave the baby with its mother."

Where He Got It.

"Phew! did you get the black eye?" "Fell on me back."

"Fer eye's not in yer back."

"Nayther was th' brick kolly throw."

LOCAL MERCHANT ON MAIL ORDERS

JANESVILLE MAN QUOTED IN ADVERTISING JOURNAL.

IDEAS FOR THE RETAILERS

Merchant Who Advertises and Practices "Square Deal" Will Win.

The August issue of White's Chain Advertising, the leading journal devoted to agricultural advertising, contains an interview with H. L. McNamara of this city on the question of mail order competition. The mail order proposition is the bugaboo of most retail merchants, and for that reason portions of the interview are reprinted here.

"I was discussing the mail order competition with H. L. McNamara of Janesville, Wis., on a train a short time ago. He was returning from the national convention of hardware retailers' associations which was held a few weeks ago in Boston. Although Janesville is but a few miles distant from Chicago, and the mail order houses of Chicago constitute the great bugaboo of the country merchant, he did not seem to be seriously concerned over it.

"I am not afraid to meet the right kind of competition," said Mr. McNamara, "whether it is in Janesville or in Chicago. What I mean by the right kind of competition is where goods offered for sale turn out to be as represented. I may not be able to buy as cheaply as the big house, but I have the advantage of being on the ground. The kind of competition that gets business away is where an article is greatly misrepresented and is apparently, to read about it, no good as one I must ask twice the money for. However, when I lose a sale of that kind, I find the man who was struck usually comes back stronger than ever."

"I recall such an instance last fall. A neighbor came into my store and after inspecting a big heating stove I had asked me the price. I told him it was $45. He said he could buy the same stove in Chicago for $26. Since I bought these stoves from an old reliable manufacturer at Aurora and they cost me $26 wholesale I felt that he was mistaken. However, I told him that was the best I could do and he sent his little old $26 to Chicago.

"He was something of a mechanic, and within two days after getting the stove he realized that he did not get what he expected. It may have been worth $26, but what he was looking for was a $15 stove. Well, he came over to see me again and I sold him a $100 furnace for his house. He sent the stove back to Chicago, but never told me whether he got his money back or not."

"I asked Mr. McNamara what effect, if any, the publicity was having on the sale of their goods. "That is a matter that is difficult to determine," said he. "Such advertising is merely by way of general information and in the course of time is certain to have an effect."

"There is one thing about the company that I think has more effect on their business than their advertising, and that is their policy of selling goods. They sell the dealer a saw that they claim is as good as any saw made. They then say to put it up to the customer. When I sold a saw I tell the buyer if he doesn't like it to bring it back and I'll give him another one or his money back. In three years I have had just one brought back."

Two points in the foregoing are particularly noteworthy; the first is the statement "I have the advantage of being on the ground." If every merchant realized the immensity of this advantage, and made the most of the opportunities afforded by being "on the ground" there would be no talk of mail order competition. The mail order house has but one advantage over the retail store—that of being able to buy in large quantities cheaper than the home retailer. But even this solitary advantage is more than offset by the fact that the consumer must pay the freight on all goods bought from the mail order house, which almost invariably more than offsets any difference in price.

The mail order houses have built up every particle of their business by the use of printers' ink—and the same weapon is at the disposal of the home retailer. This, with the advantage of being "on the ground," gives the retailer the best of it, and if he loses out in competition with the mail order houses it is solely because he has neglected his opportunities. The mail order houses come out boldly and bid for business. They print attractive descriptions of their stock, and always prices, prices, prices.

And the mail order men don't stop advertising during the so-called "dull" season—hardly. There isn't any dull season for them. Neither is there for the home retailer who keeps after business all the time and advertises reasonable articles with brief descriptions and prices the year round.

The other point brought out in the article quoted: "When I sell a ——— I tell the buyer if he doesn't like it to bring it back and I'll give him another one or his money back."

That's the kind of a store policy that will make trade and hold it. It's one of the strongest claims the mail order houses have on their immense patronage. There's a whole sermon on business success in the single sentence "money back if you want it." Not money back with a scowl, not grudgingly, not after a desperate effort to get the customer to keep the goods or take something else in their place, but just "satisfaction or your money back" without argument, without quibble, and with a smile and good will. This policy of "money back" has built up many a big retail business; it's the highest single element of success in the most successful retail stores in the country, large and small.

Persistent advertising—not now and then—not merely during the busy seasons, but all the time, advertising with descriptions and prices—this, and a straight out and out "money back" policy, will keep the merchant who adopts it so busy that he will forget the mail order houses are on earth.

HANLON TO GET HOOK

Noted Baseball General Leaves
Cincinnati In Fall.

GANZEL MAY BE SUCCESSOR.

Hanlon Has Lost Support of Public and Press by His Failures With the Reds—His Salary Too High—Facts
About His Career.

Edward Hanlon will not manage the Cincinnati club next year. This is information from an official source.
Hanlon is now managing the Cincinnati team for the second year, having gone to Cincinnati from Brooklyn in the fall of 1905 under a two years contract at a salary of $10,500 per year, one of the highest salaries ever given a baseball manager.

The whole story of Hanlon's failure to have his contract renewed with

EDWARD HANLON.

President Herrmann of the Cincinnati club is that he has not demonstrated the ability that his magnificent salary warrants. Herrmann is known throughout the baseball world as the most munificent spender of money for players in the country. Hanlon has had a full rein in every respect. In his short regime with Herrmann the latter has expended thousands of dollars for players that have proved worthless. It is a known fact that Cincinnati has put out more money without an adequate return than any other club in America. But even so liberal a club president as Herrmann has seen the futility of such investments with Hanlon at the managerial helm.

No man in America today is worth the sum of $10,500 as manager of a baseball team in any city except New York or Chicago. The receipts from baseball business do not warrant any such extravagant figures outside of the two cities named. Herrmann has at last arrived at this conclusion and will add this amount to his season's profits after this year.

The public, press and players of Cincinnati are hostile to Hanlon. He has utterly failed to maintain the reputation he made in Baltimore, where he managed the famous team composed of Keeler, Kelly, Jennings, Mc-Gravy, "Mo" Toole, Robinson and others that won pennants four years in succession and incidentally introduced rowdy tactics in their play that disgraced the city and game and killed
the sport in the Monumental City.

Hanlon has been surviving on the record made in Baltimore over since the middle nineties, and it is doubtful if there will be a national or American league club that will come forward and offer him a salary that he would be willing to accept for his services. Hanlon will probably retire to his Baltimore team, in which he has evinced a more lively interest ever since it became a member of the continent league circuit than in the clubs
he has managed, Brooklyn and Cincinnati.

John Ganzel, at present captain of the Cincinnati team, is slated as Hanlon's successor. While the duties as manager of a major league team will be now to the big first baseman, he is not unacquainted with managerial duties. Following his desertion of the New York American league team, he purchased an interest in the Grand Rapids (Mich.) club and for three years managed its playing and financial interests with great success, and from the experience gained there it is claimed that he will be successful
with the Cincinnati team.

Hanlon has gathered together the nucleus of a good team for Cincinnati. In fact, as presently constituted it is too strong to be in seventh place,
and the only reason assigned for its low position is that the players will not exert their best efforts for Hanlon. It is a known fact that several of the best players are "sore" on Hanlon and will not play good ball as long as he is connected with the club.
Hanlon has been accused of playing favorites, and, whether justly or unjustly, this has lost him caste with the Cincinnati public.

Good in a Pinch.
Sammy Strang of the New York Nationals has the knack of doing sena-tional things in a ball game. He is very often to the front with a surprising catch, a timely hit or something of that kind.

Huston, a Scout.
The veteran Jack Huston has been scouting in the east for the St. Louis National club.

RIVAL HORSE PILOTS

Walter Miller and J. Lee Strive to Lead Country's Jockeys.

NEGRO BOY'S GREAT RECORD

He Rode Six Winners at Louisville in One Day—He Swept the Entire Card—Was Developed at New Orleans—Records Compared.

"Who is this boy Jimmy Lee, who has been doing such great riding?" is a question frequently heard on many race tracks. Lee is, in fact, a real sensation. He is a colored boy, and he achieved national note not long ago when he rode six winners in one day at Louisville.

Lee made a clean sweep of the card of six races for the first time in the history of racing in America.

That means there will be a strong bid for his services as a rider.
Eastern turf critics are in the habit of comparing Walter Miller's duo roc-ord with the performance of western jockeys to the detriment of the latter.

There is no question of Miller's ability in the saddle or of the fact that he is one of the greatest riders ever developed in the country, but just at present Lee's work in the saddle surpasses that of Miller.

Lee was developed last winter at New Orleans, and at the close of the meeting at the fair grounds it was the general opinion that he was the best pluckin artist that had been seen in that section for many years.

When the Louisville spring meeting opened he was in great demand among the horsemen.

In comparing the work of Jockeys
Miller and Lee it is necessary to remember that the former is at the call of two of the strongest stables on the Metropolitan racing circuit and consequently that his mounts are the best obtainable. These are the Keene and Kewenaw stables, and the caliber of their horses is well known.

Lee, on the other hand, has been riding on a free lance and had to accept mounts as they came to him, regardless of their quality.

An analysis of the work of both jockeys in the three weeks between May 6 and 31 may be of interest.

In that time Lee had 122 mounts.
He was first thirty-four times, second fourteen times, third nineteen times
and unplaced fifty-five times.

This gives him a general average of about 28 per cent.

Lee rode the favorite forty-three times. He had the mount on the second choice twenty-three times, and he rode the third choice twenty-one times.
On thirty-five occasions he rode outsiders. Of the forty-three favorites ridden by the colored boy he brought home twenty of them winners, or about 46 2/3 per cent. Fifty-four per cent of his mounts were either first or second choice in the betting.

Miller's work in the same period is
as follows:

He had 117 mounts, out of which he was first thirty-six times, second twen-

J. LEE, BEST RIDER OF SOUTH AND WEST.
17-one times, third sixteen times and unplaced forty-four times. This gives him a general average of 30 2/3 per cent.

Miller rode first choice sixty times,
second choice twenty-five times, third choice thirteen times and "also rans"
nineteen times.

In sixty chances on first choice he was first twenty-three times.

His winning per cent on first choice
was thirty-eight.
Seventy-three per cent of his mounts
were first or second choice in the betting.

How Detroit Got Star Player For $700
From Southern Minors.

One of the best ball players in the country was secured for $700. The player in question is none other than Ty Cobb.

Bill Armour claims credit for discovering Cobb, and this is how it came about.

The Detroit club trained in Augusta,
Ga., in the spring of 1904, and Bill Armour saw Cobb work with the South Atlantic team. The Toledo manager kept the youngster in mind,
and when Detroit suffered from accidents he at once thought of Cobb.

Bill asked the price on Cobb and was told $1,000. Secretary Navin of the Detroit club didn't want Cobb and looked about buying him. Bill, however, thought he would make a great player and on his own hook offered $500.

This offer was finally accepted, and then Armour wired that he would give $200 more if Cobb was allowed to join the Tigers at once. This was also agreed to, and Ty was sent on. He won the first game with his stick and has been getting better every day since.

What You Thought About Lightning Rods

may be all wrong. If your knowledge was gained from the methods of the old-time "sharpers" that once infested the business, you're hardly to blame if you look askance at the lightning rod business as a whole, but—

The days of the slick "lightning rod agent" with his oily tongue and his tricky "contracts" are done.

Likewise there's as much difference between the old jointed iron rods and the Janesville
Copper Cable Lightning Rod as there is between a stagecoach and a locomotive.

We were told—in the days of the old iron rod—that the rod would "catch" the lightning. It generally did—but it was such a poor conductor that the house caught most of it, and the house with one of these iron rods stood a bigger chance of damage than the house without one.

The Janesville Copper Cable Lightning Rod doesn't "catch" or "attract" the lightning. It is a perfect conductor of electricity, and it carries off the electricity which accumulates in the house as fast as it forms.

That makes it impossible for lightning to strike the house, for lightning never strikes except where the atmosphere is already charged with electricity.

The fact that of thousands and tens of thousands of buildings rodded with the Copper Cable Lightning Rod NOT ONE WAS EVER DAMAGED BY LIGHTNING is pretty good proof that they protect.

And as to contracts, we ask none. We will rod your buildings and give you six months or a year's time; and we guarantee to refund the price of the rod if lightning damages any building equipped with it.

Is that fair?

TRUST BUSTING

The most popular man in the hearts of the American people today is President Roosevelt.

Why?

Because he stands for the "square deal" to the common people as well as to the corporations.

He takes the side of the people who need things and against the combinations that would take advantage of their needs, to extort undue gains.

These are days when lots of men find it to their profit to combine and raise prices.

In Dentistry, Dr. Richards of Janesville holds aloft from all local committees and maintains his prices on a living, reasonable basis.

One lady recently saved $17 on her dental bill by selecting him to do her dental work.

He does the BEST of work. His prices won't jar you.

ARE FIRE POLICE TO BE LOSERS?

NEW LAW MAY CUT SUPPORTING FUNDS IN TWO.

REORGANIZATION POSSIBLE

Members Will Discuss Matter at Monthly Meetings—Many Questions Involved.

One of the new laws, passed by the last Wisconsin legislature and made effective January 1, 1908, may result in the disbanding or reorganization of the Janesville fire police, one of the oldest and most efficient fire police companies in the United States. The statute in question is the one providing pensions for disabled and superannuated members of fire departments. It may affect the fire police in that the pension fund is to be created from the same source on which the police maintain their equipment. Whether this law invalidates that portion of Janesville's special charter relative to the support of the fire police is a question that is debatable. If it does, the fire police will receive only half the amount they now get from the city and that would not be sufficient to pay the current expenses. The fire police will hold their regular monthly business meeting next Tuesday evening and the matter will then be discussed.

Text of the Statute
The text of this section of law 214 reads as follows: "In all cities of the second, third and fourth class within this state, having paid fire departments one-half of all sums collected or received by the treasurer of such cities, under the requirements of any law of this state or of the charter of any such city relating to and providing for the taxation of fire insurance companies or agents, shall be set apart by the common council and controllers of such cities, and retained and get apart by the treasurer of such cities, which shall be used for the pensioning of disabled and superannuated members of the fire departments, and the widows and dependents of deceased members thereof, and the treasurer of such cities shall be ex-officio treasurer of such funds." Janesville is a third class city, so the statute applies here unless voided by the city's special charter.

How Police Are Supported
Now the fire police receive about fifteen or sixteen hundred dollars annually from the city. They get all of the two per cent tax levied on fire insurance premiums collected in Janesville. To cut that amount in two would mean that funds would have to be raised by other methods or that the company could no longer support the expensive apparatus that they do at present. With this tax money and fines levied against their individual members the police have purchased a costly patrol wagon, with chemical engine and hose, this up and pays a driver. The city houses the wagon and team and pays for the feeding of the horses. To keep this company up the city council could appropriate money.

Members Interviewed
Members of the company were interviewed this morning. Captain S. B. Heddes said that very little had been said among the members. It had been suggested that the company disband and also that it reorganize only as a patrol company, simply protecting property from thieves and water. He refused to make any predictions as to what course would be followed. Secretary E. B. Heddes, a veteran member, said the matter had never been brought up for discussion at a regular meeting and it was impossible to say what would be done. He believed the body a valuable one to the city but thought the members would drop the organization without objection if the lawmakers had seen fit to withdraw the support.

City Attorney's View
A copy of the law was submitted to City Attorney Maxfield and he expressed himself as believing it affected Janesville and abrogated all sections of the charter conflicting therewith. "If the fire police disband what disposition will be made of the other one per cent collected from the fire insurance agents, agencies, and companies?" was asked. Mr. Maxfield said that as all such money went to the fire department under the present law, being directed into the channels of the fire police under our charter, it would hereafter be added to the appropriation made for the support of the department. He also agreed with the statement made above to the effect that an appropriation for the support of the company can be made.

JUDGE SALE HAS FILED OPINION

Establishing Right of Mrs. Ralph Bleasdale, Jr., to Share in Estate Left by Father-in-Law.

In the matter of the construction of the will of the late Ralph Bleasdale, Sr., which was recently argued in county court, Judge Sale has filed a written opinion in which he holds that the widow of Ralph Bleasdale, Jr., is entitled to the forty acres of land under dispute, together with the buildings thereon. The land is a portion of the large estate in the town of Janesville. It was claimed by the other heirs that by reason of the death of Ralph Bleasdale, Jr., before the demise of his mother, the widow of Ralph Bleasdale, Sr., and his alleged non-compliance with the terms of the will which stipulated that he should care for the property in a certain fashion, his widow had no rightful share in the estate. This claim was not upheld by the court. Pethers, Jeffers & Mount represented the creditors of Ralph Bleasdale, Jr.; Arthur Fisher, the executor of the estate of Ralph Bleasdale, Jr.; Whithead & Matheson, the executors of the estate of Ralph Bleasdale, Sr.; and W. H. Dougherty, the children of the deceased son of Ralph Bleasdale, Sr.

Cruelty of Mothers.

"Talking about the funds raised to train mothers to take care of their sick children," said the woman, "sometimes ought to be done in the way of showing them how to treat their well ones. Yesterday I saw a woman sit her child down hard on the seat by her in the car and pinch him. He was so little! He tried hard not to cry. It was all I could do to keep from getting up right there and pinching her."

The Passing of the Levite.

The teacher was explaining to his Scottish class the parable of the man who fell among thieves. Then—after the manner of teachers—he asked the class why the priest and the Levite passed by on the other side. Silence fell—until the small boy raised his hand and his voice: "They knew he had been robbed already," he said.—London Tribune.

MAYOR TOM JOHNSON

of Cleveland, presidential possibility and street car magnate, is president of a big savings bank. They have recently issued an interest bearing certificate of deposit decorated with Johnson's portrait, which circulates like money and looks like money. The resemblance is so striking that the government has proceeded to tax the issue under the law taxing ten per cent the currency issued by state banks. Our certificates will circulate as freely as Johnson's, bear three per cent interest and are payable on demand. When you own one your money is practically in your pocket and at the same time earns interest for you.

STRIKE PROBABLY AVERTED

PITTSBURG COAL COMPANY WILL CONFER WITH MEN.

Willing to Make Reparation if its Agreements with Employees Have Been Violated.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 2.—The flag of peace has been unfurled in connection with the differences of the 14,000 miners employed in the Pittsburg district and the Pittsburg Coal company.

On the initiative of the coal company, a conference will be held Friday at which it is thought probable the trouble will be adjusted.

President Feehan, of the miners' union, following his declaration of Wednesday night that a strike would be called within a short time, received on Thursday a letter from the officials of the Pittsburg Coal company, asking that a meeting be held to talk matters over. Mr. Feehan immediately made the necessary arrangements for the conference so far as the men are concerned.

President Feehan said Thursday night: "While the situation has assumed a serious phase, I entertained hopes all along that an amicable settlement would be made before strike orders would be issued."

It is understood that the letter received by Mr. Feehan from the coal company does not mean the company has taken another stand from the one announced Wednesday night. The letter states that if any agreements have been violated the company is ready to remedy the wrongs and treat with its employees as it has always done in the past.

The entire situation appears optimistic and it is believed there will be no strike.

MURDERED AND EARS CUT OFF.

Second Case of the Kind at Oklahoma City, Okla.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Aug. 2.—With ears cut from the head, the trunk and one arm pierced with four bullets, tooth knocked out and the mouth bruised, the body of Wilbur Gunroth, a barber, who is supposed to have come to Oklahoma City a short time ago from Seattle, I. T., was found Thursday afternoon three miles west of the city.

This is the second body that has been found near Oklahoma City within a week with the ears cut off, and the police are working on the theory that a secret society, formed to wreak horrible vengeance on its enemies, is operating here.

New Cruiser in Commission. Vallejo, Cal., Aug. 2.—With appropriate ceremonies the new cruiser California, recently completed, was placed in commission Thursday. Capt. Thomas S. Phelps will command the cruiser. The California is the finest vessel that ever came from this yard, having a displacement of 13,000 tons and an indicated horse power of 26,000. She will join the Pacific squadron.

Degenerate Caught in Denver. Denver, Col., Aug. 2.—Peter Magofin, a laborer, was arrested in this city Thursday after he had slashed the dresses of nearly 30 women and girls on the streets. He was caught in the act and when searched a keen knife and a number of bits of slashed dresses were found on his person. He could not explain his actions.

Bank Janitor Accused of Robbery. Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 2.—Thomas Jordan, 27 years old (colored), janitor of the First National bank of Turtle Creek, Pa., near here, was lodged in the Allegheny county jail Thursday night, charged with the theft of $4,500 from the institution. Jordan denies all knowledge of the robbery.

PETRIELLA URGES MEN TO USE GUNS

LEADER OF STRIKERS DELIVERS
VITRIOLIC ADDRESS.

GUARDS HURRY TO RANGE

Miners Will Be Handled Quietly But Firmly—Governor's Special Emissaries Have Returned.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 2.—One working day has passed since operations on the range, following the settlement of the ore dock strike, were begun by the United States Steel corporation and the independent mines, and no serious disorder was reported.

The industrial sky over the range is not cloudless, however, for the sullen attitude of the followers of the Western Federation of Miners indicates an attitude of desperation which was somewhat intensified by a vitriolic address delivered by Petriella, the strike leader, in which, while counselling peace, he advocated the use of guns to maintain what he said was their right to sell their labor where they could at the best advantage.

Gives Governor 24 Hours.
In this address Petriella gave the governor "24 hours in which to grant the men justice," at the end of which time he advised the men to be "ready to strike the head off any man who tries to crush you; if not as American citizens, do it as human beings."

Whether anything will come of this is awaited with anxiety and the officials are prepared. All of the special guards who have been in Duluth during the past few days were rushed to the range. It was said that 200 men were in the party and they will augment Sheriff Hakes' force of deputies in case there is any trouble.

Men Will Be Handled Gently.
The miners will not be interfered with if they go about in small groups, but if they attempt to march in large bodies they will be stopped. This was made clear to them Wednesday when they attempted to march from Hibbing to the meeting at Chisholm where Petriella made his violent speech. Otherwise the officials will handle them gently in order that there may be no pretext for a clash.

Reports received here indicate that mining operations were resumed heavily in both the Hibbing and Eveleth districts.

Governor's Emissaries Return.
Thomas D. O'Brien, former state insurance commissioner, and Harvey Grimmer, executive clerk to Gov. Johnson, who visited the range towns as personal representatives of the governor, returned to Duluth Thursday evening.

They reported everything quiet on the range. Mr. O'Brien said they attempted to learn for the governor the exact condition and to ascertain if there was not some common ground on which both parties to the trouble could agree to prevent a physical conflict.

Mr. O'Brien said he had succeeded in getting each side to agree to respect the other's rights under the law. He thought the governor would issue a proclamation defining these positions and any infraction on either side could then be dealt with accordingly.

FLEET PLAN NOT CHANGED.

Battleships Will Be Sent to the Pacific, Says Mr. Loeb.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., Aug. 2.—Secretary Loeb said Thursday there had been no change in the plans to send the Atlantic battleship fleet to the Pacific ocean, and that the necessary preparations for the trip are now being made by the navy department. Upon their completion and approval by the president the voyage will be begun when the president gives the word.

Mr. Loeb made this statement incidentally in saying that there was no foundation for the report that Secretary Metcalf had been or would be asked to resign from the cabinet because of his announcement that the fleet would be in San Francisco harbor in the near future. Mr. Loeb said there was no reason for criticizing Secretary Metcalf on account of his announcement. Secretary Loeb's statement that the fleet will go to the Pacific is regarded here as significant as being the first direct announcement to that effect made at Oyster Bay.

Washington, Aug. 2.—No protest has been received from the Japanese government against the plan to send the Atlantic battleship fleet to the Pacific and none is expected. It is pointed out here that no basis exists for protest or complaint, as the fleet is to remain in American waters.

WILLIAMS LEADS VARDAMAN CONGRESSMAN SEEMS LIKELY TO BE NAMED SENATOR.

Governor Makes Gains in Southern Counties But Probably Will Be Defeated.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 2.—Dispatches on the Mississippi primary election received by the News-Scimitar indicate a victory for John Sharp Williams for United States senator, although Gov. Vardaman is making unexpected gains in the southern counties.

Owing to an unusually heavy vote and the fact that the polls did not close until six o'clock, the indications as to which two of the six candidates for governor will remain in the race are more uncertain, but the decision evidently rests among Scott, Truly, Drew and Noel. Thomas and Simpson ran poorly.

Gov. Vardaman claims 37 of the 79 counties. Williams claims a majority of from 20,000 to 30,000, and, allowing Gov. Vardaman's claim of 37 counties, still claims a majority owing to larger counties.

In Memphis, Williams' money was offered Thursday night with odds of two to one. There were some takers. Returns received by the Commercial Appeal up to 10:30 Thursday night showed Williams maintaining a lead of about three to one over Vardaman. In the contest for governor, Scott was leading Noel by a small margin.

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 2.—With 15 cities heard from in part or in full, Williams was leading with 546 votes to 331 for Vardaman. Jackson up to about 9:30 Thursday night had returned 55 for Williams and 14 for Vardaman, a ratio of three to one, and Gulfport reported Williams in the lead in that part of the south coast of Mississippi by about three to one.

Gubernatorial candidates Charles Scott and E. L. Noel were ahead of their competitors, although their lead was not large.

THIRD VICTIM OF GOTHAM STRANGLER

BODY OF EIGHT-YEAR-OLD GIRL IS FOUND IN BASEMENT.

WORST OF THREE CASES

Child, Who Disappeared a Week Ago,
Was Shockingly Maltreated,
Killed and Mutilated—
Cobbler Suspected.

New York, Aug. 2.—"The graveyard," as the forelorn-populated neighborhood on First avenue, between Thirtieth and Fourteenth streets, is known locally, gave up Thursday a fresh crime, rivaling in atrocity the mysterious butcheries of last week. The latest discovered victim was an eight-year-old girl, and, like the two young women murdered, she had been shockingly maltreated before death and the body mutilated when life was extinct.

The three murders are strikingly similar. Last Thursday night a woman was strangled in a twenty-second street boarding house; the next morning the body of a still unidentified woman, who had been choked to death, was found in an arway in East Ninetieth street. Katie Pritschler, daughter of a restaurant waiter, disappeared a week ago and was killed that night. A ribbon placed about the throat and drawn so tightly that it cut the flesh showed how she died. Her body was the one found Thursday.

Most Brutal of the Three.
If the brutality of the murders can be gauged, that of the Pritschler girl ranks first. She was assaulted, murdered and then her lifeless form was horribly mutilated.

"The graveyard" takes its name from the proximity of the old Thirtieth street cemetery and the locality has been the scene of several revolting murders. The majority of the residents are foreigners.

Carl Pritschler, the father of Katie, is a hard working, respectable citizen. He has several other children, all younger than Katie.

Body Found After a Week.

The girl left her home at 349 East Thirtieth street last Thursday night to play in the street. When she failed to return the father notified the police and a general alarm was sent out. The body was discovered within a block of her home, and scarcely a hundred yards from the location of a placard placed by the father, calling attention to the fact that his child was lost. How the body could have remained undiscovered for a week is not explained.

The girl's body was stumbled upon by a woman who visited the basement of the house at 203 First avenue. It lay upon a berry crate with seemingly no effort at concealment.

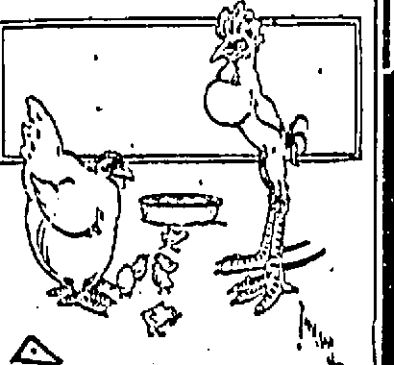

"You can say for me," Coroner Harburger declared, "that the crimes in Berlin, of which the newspapers have told, have not been one thousandth part as bad as the murder of this little girl."

Cobbler Under Suspicion.

At the coroner's direction, Gaetano Rippolano, whose cobbler shop adjoins the girl's home, was arrested and asked to explain his absence from his shop on last Friday. He established the fact that he had spent the day at Bristol, Conn. The girl is said to have frequented Rippolano's place and a search of the shop brought to light a man's shirt which bore red stains. The cobbler was arraigned and remanded to the coroner.

The police also began a search for a woman who is said to have formerly roomed at the Pritschler home, but who left there after a quarrel and took lodgings in the house where the girl's body was found.

Petitions to an Emperor.

One of the most interesting features of the emperor's visit was the number of petitions which were, so to speak, thrown at him during his fortnight's stay. Scarcely once did his majesty drive out from the Hradshchin without somebody attempting to present an appeal. Usually the petitioner was a small child and occasionally a woman. Most of the requests were for pecuniary assistance. The emperor was always extremely courteous, and when, as frequently happened, the letter missed the carriage and fell into the road he invariably ordered the coachman to stop while the document was brought to him. The household chancery is now dealing with something more than a hundred petitions thus unceremoniously presented. All of them are carefully investigated, and whenever it is possible something is done for the applicant.—Prague correspondence Pall Mall Gazette.

The Best Things of Life.
When we look back at the end of the journey of life we shall consider not how much pleasure we had in it, but how much service we gave in it; not how full it was of success, but how full it was of sacrifice; not how happy we were, but how helpful we were; not how ambition was gratified, but how love was served.—Hugh Black.

"Bumper."
The word "bumper," meaning a drinking vessel, derived its origin from the Roman Catholic religion. It was the custom in England in ancient times to drink to the health of the pope after dinner in a full glass of wine. This was called "an hon pour," from which we have the contraction "bumper."

Dice-Throwing an Old Custom.
"Craps," or throwing dice, is said to have been originally a religious act. In the turn of the dice was supposed by the primitive peoples to be the answer of the gods to their prayers. There was no element of chance involved.

A MISTAKEN IDEA ABOUT ELECTRIC LIGHT

Strangely enough, there are people who feel that electric light is expensive. They seem to argue that because it is so much superior to any other illuminant, therefore it must be more costly to use. It is not!

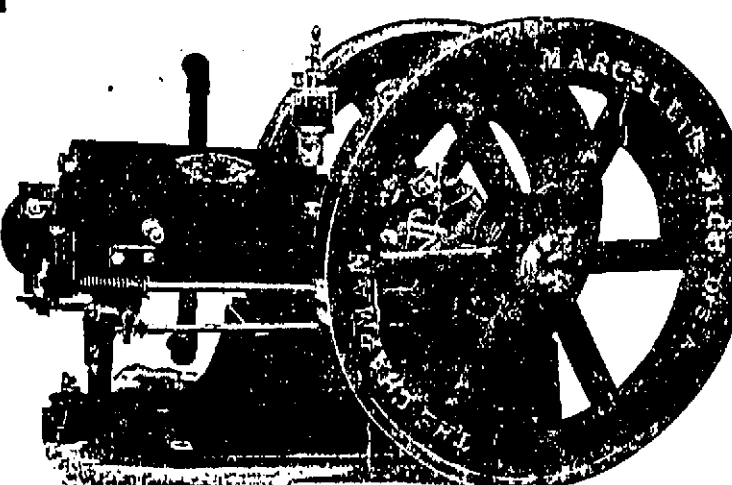

THE COST IS LOWER

than for any other form of lighting when you consider the efficiency of electric light—the actual candle power available for use—and the saving to decorations in a house in freedom from soot or smudge. It may pay you to investigate—to compare the cost of less desirable forms of illumination. A solicitor will call if you desire.

S.S.S. PURIFIES THE BLOOD

There is no other part of our physical system upon which so much depends as upon the blood. The muscles, nerves, bones, sinews, skin, and other portions of the body are sustained, developed and enabled to perform their different duties, because they are supplied with nourishment and healthful properties through the circulation. In various ways the blood becomes contaminated and polluted. A sluggish, inactive condition of the system, and torpid state of the avenues of bodily waste, will leave the refuse and waste matter of the body to sour and form uric and other acids, which are absorbed into the blood and Rheumatism, or some itching, disfiguring skin disease is the result. Muddy, sallow complexions, eruptions, spots, pimples, etc., all show that some humor has taken root in the circulation and rendered it sour and unfit for nourishing the body. There is scarcely any disease which cannot be traced to the blood. Often the disease-tainted blood of parents is handed down to children and their lives are a continual battle against disease in some form, usually of a hereditary nature. Rheumatism, Catarrh, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., are all deep-seated blood troubles, and until this vital fluid is purified they cannot be cured. For all blood diseases S. S. S. is the best remedy ever put upon the market. This great medicine is made of roots, herbs and barks of recognized blood-purifying and building-up properties. It goes down into the circulation and removes all poisons, impurities and humors, supplies the blood with the healthful properties it needs and completely cures blood diseases of every kind. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Sores and Ulcers, Contagious Blood Poison, etc., because it purifies the blood. Book on the blood and medical advice free.

Have You Heard About Alberta?

It's going to be the GREATEST stock raising region in America.

Stock raising is the most profitable and satisfactory branch of farming. The IDEAL grazing and stock region in Southern Alberta, Canada. Climate and weather conditions are so favorable that stock is kept on the range all winter and no expensive stables are needed—shed feeding is all that is necessary.

GRAZE ALL WINTER.

The snowfall is much lighter than in Wisconsin, and the grasses furnish feed for the stock all winter. Alfalfa, the best all-round forage plant, grows thickly and luxuriantly year in and year out. Once rooted, it lasts a lifetime, and you may harvest two or three crops a year. Good Alfalfa land, under irrigation, you can buy for $18.00 to $25.00 per acre.

ALL KINDS OF FARMING.

NEVER SAW SUCH CROPS.

"I have been vitally interested in the crops of the Northwest States for the past 15 years and never in all of my experience have I seen such crops anywhere in any country as we have here in Alberta at the present time. Conditions could not possibly have been better had they been made to order. The winter wheat crop is especially fine and promising. This does not apply to any one district in Alberta but to the entire area."
